Speeding continued to be the most frequent traffic citation issued in 2006, and accounted for 56.3% of all tickets issued. The next largest violation was for illegal operator, which accounted for 11.0% of all violations. Citations for combined illegal operation (e.g. inspection, registration, insurance, equipment) accounted for an additional 18.26% of citations issued. Relatively few citations (5.9%) were for other moving violations, as has been the case in previous years.
